

Introduction for Dr. Larry Finer

It's my great pleasure to introduce Larry Finer, who is the Director of Domestic Research with the Guttmacher Institute. He is here today to talk to us about Unintended Pregnancy and Family Planning Services in Iowa.

On a personal note, Larry grew up in the northern suburbs of Chicago, and, received his A.B. in psychology from Harvard and his Ph.D. in population dynamics from the Johns Hopkins University School of Public Health.

Larry has been with the Guttmacher Institute since 1998. As Director of Domestic Research, Larry is responsible for supervising Guttmacher's portfolio of U.S.-focused projects on family planning services, contraceptive use patterns, pregnancy and abortion, and adolescent reproductive health. Larry's personal research has looked at the incidence of premarital sex, unintended pregnancy, and abortion in the U.S., as well as the services provided by family planning agencies and clinics. He also serves as a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Population and Family Health at Columbia University

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Larry Finer!
